Welcome to Oregon!

Oregon isn't a place you see as much as you do. Sure, you can sight-see our beautiful coast, volcanic mountains, crystal-clear lakes and deserts stretching beyond the horizon. But you can do so much more. We have hiking trails through alpine passes, across ancient fossil beds and overlooking the Pacific Ocean. We have walks in Portland, along the historic Lewis and Clark trail and throughout the lush Willamette Valley. Whether you're into road biking, mountain biking or in-town cruising, Oregon has routes you'll enjoy. And with more than 200 public golf courses, it's no wonder Oregon ranks high among golf fans. But there's much more: paragliding the Gorge, angling the Deschutes, rafting Hells Canyon, year-round snow skiing and 363 miles of coastline for surfing, wildlife-viewing and sunset-watching.

Want more? The culinary scene in Oregon is one of the most vibrant in the nation. We have the perfect weather to grow the perfect ingredients—hardy hops and barley, award-winning Pinot Noir, delicious pears, fresh salmon, earthy mushrooms and sweet berries. Maybe it's Oregon's pioneer roots, but in this can-do culture we know good food requires effort, and it's worth it.

If you're looking for world-class wine, mouth-watering homegrown food and craft beer, epic windsurfing or ocean kayaking or just about anything else-ing, look no further. Better yet, don't look—come out here and jump in!
